May We Never Get Over The Gospel

I pray that I will never get over the gospel. One of the dangers of drifting is that you are not aware that it is happening. Often, we can become so enamored and even distracted with going to church and staying busy within the church that we forget about a lost community that surrounds that church. Many of them are waiting to be invited to church. Several of them would be open to hearing the good news of the gospel if someone would just take the time to tell them.

Every year, our local churches fill out the Annual Church Profile (ACP) and report the number of baptisms that local churches had. Why does this matter? Because it shows us the missional health of our churches and it reminds us that we still have an opportunity to obey the Lord in reaching Ohio for Christ!

So how are we doing? In 2021, Ohio Baptist churches baptized 1,705 individuals. That is pretty good, but the even better news was that in 2022, we saw our churches baptize nearly 2,300 people -- a 32% increase over the previous year...praise the Lord! However, we just received the ACP data from 2023 and I am so excited to share that SCBO churches celebrated 3,406 individuals who went public with their faith and took the next steps of believers' baptism--that's a 96% increase over the past two years...to God be the glory!

While we are so grateful to the Lord for his kindness and to our churches for their faithfulness, we still are aware that most Ohioans are lost without a relationship with Jesus. It is this reality that leads us to cooperate for the purpose of spreading the gospel to our neighbors and the nations.

Did you know that the SCBO offers evangelism grants to cooperating churches that faithfully make contributions to the Cooperative Program (CP) and fill out their Annual Church Profile (ACP)? If you would like a copy of the evangelism grant form to fill out or have questions, please email grants@scbo.org to learn more.

I pray that we will never get over the gospel.

GOOD SHEPHERD BAPTIST CHURCH - AMHERST, OHIO

President's Pen

Make Disciples, No Matter What

"And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. 18 And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'"

- The Holy Bible: English Standard Version (Mt 28:17-20). (2016). Crossway Bibles

The Bible is sometimes shockingly honest. Jesus has just conquered sin and death. He invited his disciples to touch his side and eat along with him. Rightly, they worship him...but some doubted. They doubted?!?!?! They're face to face with the risen King...and some doubted.

Like the disciples, we worship Jesus. Like the disciples, we have come to know and believe that he is the Christ, the son of the Living God. He has the words of life; where else would we go? And like the disciples, sometimes we have doubts.

Are you in a season of doubt? Of faith-filled worship? Of struggle? Of joyful victory?

No matter what season you are in, remember the Lord's command to make disciples. Baptize them. Train them to observe all the Lord's commands...including the one to make disciples! Tell them to remember Jesus; He's with his people, all the time, no matter what, until the end.

He loves his people.

One of the great things about being an Ohio Baptist is the support. Are you going through a tough time? Help is just an email or phone call away. There are amazing resources in our state to help church leaders who are struggling. We can help you remember the mercy of the Lord, and we can help you proclaim the word of Christ in your community so that lost people can hear and respond to the gospel! You can always reach me at president@scbo.org.

SCBO Begins Partnership with The Worship Initiative

By Zac James, SCBO worship consultant, and Stephanie Heading, managing editor

Every Sunday morning, Ohio Baptists gather to worship the Lord in music and the word. However, according to SCBO Worship Consultant, Zac James, worship ministry is an area of need in many SCBO churches.

“At the state convention, the most common call we get from our churches is ‘I need help in the area of worship,’” said James. “I hear you, Dr. Jeremy Westbrook, executive director, hears you, and we want to come alongside you and help however we can. We are committed to helping you identify and develop the next generation of worship leaders to serve the local church.”

With the mission of raising the next generation of worship leaders in mind, SCBO is thrilled to announce a partnership with The Worship Initiative to help churches get critical training to develop worship leaders and teams.

“The Worship Initiative’s aim is simple,” said Andrew McKinney, executive vice president, sales and customer success at The Worship Initiative. “We seek to equip and encourage worship pastors, leaders, and their teams and those who aspire to be a part of those spaces.”

Founded by Shane & Shane, The Worship Initiative has a digital resource online with over 550 songs attached with playthrough tutorials, devotionals, and scripture support as well as overarching instrument and vocal training, studies on pastoral care, theological and heart training and much more.

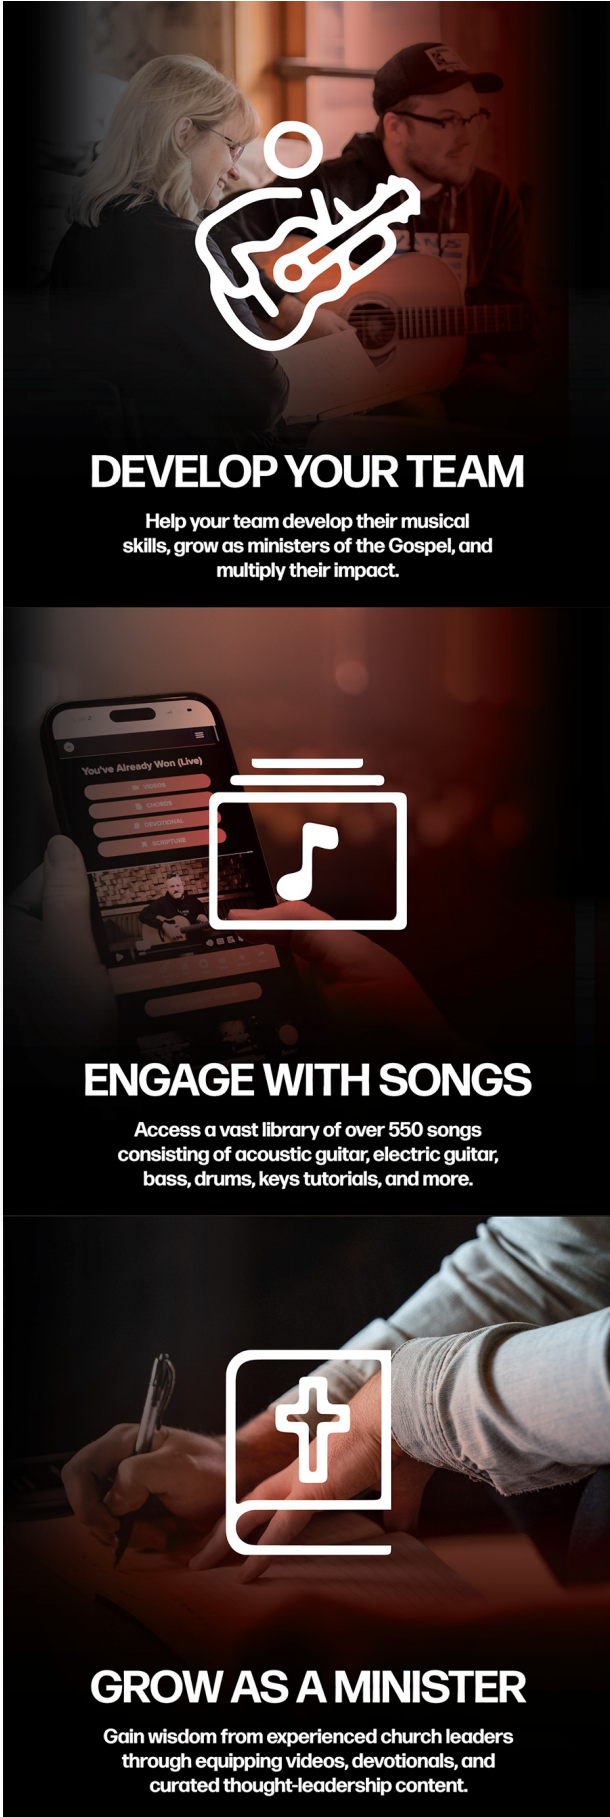

“In short we hope it’s a tool that encourages and develops holistic, healthy worshippers who hold high the word of God as they lead in corporate spaces for the local church,” McKinney noted.

Due to the partnership with Ohio Baptists, SCBO churches are eligible for a tier discount. For church group accounts a 10-seat account will be the price of a 5-seat account. The 25-seat account will be the price of a 10-seat account, and smaller teams are eligible for 50% off our 5 seat accounts.

“SCBO has its own account,” said James. “I really believe in this resource and the value it can add to your church. We pray as you begin this new ministry year that you would commit yourself to pursue worship ministry with excellence and passion as we sing the gospel of Jesus Christ every Sunday morning.

“May our churches be known not just for biblical preaching and cooperation in missions all over the world, but also for how we worship the King in the local church gatherings of Ohio Baptists!”

Declining Churches Renewed Through Revitalizing, Fostering, and Replanting

By Stephanie Heading, managing editor

In 2017, Summit Baptist Church, Pataskala, was a church in decline.

The congregation had been without a pastor for over a year due to difficult circumstances and the congregation dwindled to 15 people. The building was outdated, and the church wasn't active in outreach to its community.

Pastor Mark Glenn accepted God's call to serve as Summit's senior pastor in late 2017 and started at the church in early 2018.

After Glenn's arrival, the church recognized its need as a declining church and entered a time of revitalization. Now six years later Summit BC has seen its ministry renewed and its congregation increase to 75-90 people in attendance. "God has really grown this ministry," he said.

However, the church and its pastor were not content to celebrate their victories and leave other declining churches behind.

One of those churches was First Southern Baptist of Johnstown, a church that Glenn was familiar with. "I drove by it every time I went from Mount Vernon to Johnstown."

The church was struggling without a pastor and it reminded Glenn of Summit before its revitalization. "Their situation was like ours was. The congregation was down to 10-15 members. They had lost their way. It was identical to what we were."

He contacted Steve Hopkins, SCBO convention relations. "I told Steve that if we can be a blessing to them, please let them know." Hopkins brought Mark Jones, SCBO revitalization consultant, into the conversation and the path to a church foster relationship began between Summit and FSB Johnstown.

"Church Foster Care is a time-bound strategic partnership between a stronger church and a struggling church," said Jones. "The struggling church receives and accepts coaching, care, wisdom, and resources aimed at returning the struggling church to vitality and full autonomy. Church Foster Care happens through a revitalization process or if the struggling church desires, through replanting."

Building a relationship between the two churches was the first and most important step leading to a foster agreement.

"Leaders at our church reached out to FSB Johnstown," said Glenn. "They became an extension of our church." In June 2023, FSB Johnstown voted to enter a foster relationship with Summit.

the pulpit at Johnstown and performed pastoral duties such as preaching funerals. Summit also supplied an interim pastor. The two churches met together occasionally for services and got to know each other.

“We also gave them our word that we would help them find the right guy as their pastor,” said Pastor Rob Kane. He began screening resumes and doing interviews with potential candidates for the position and narrowed the field to five candidates.

When the pastor search process ended, Sam Romine, current youth and college pastor, Lifepoint Mount Vernon, accepted the call to serve as the new pastor of FSB Johnstown. “The Lord is going to use Sam to hit a homerun,” said Glenn.

In addition to finding a pastor, FSB Johnstown also voted to replant the church. “They were aware that they were a dying church,” said Glenn. “The desire to do a replant was a huge decision.”

When Romine starts his duties as senior pastor in summer 2024, FSB Johnstown will become “Redemption Church,” and Summit will still be supporting the replant. Glenn will be part of an advisory committee designed to help steer the new church.

This was the first fostering experience for Summit, and Glenn feels blessed to be a part of it. “I have been so encouraged by how much support the folks there have given. It’s evidence of God at work. In the relationship between our two churches there has been time, resources and sacrifices made,” said Glenn. “It’s a great testimony of the Lord at work.”

In addition to fostering FSB Johnstown, the church has also faithfully responded to the need for new church plants in central Ohio, sending one of its own, Pastor Rob Kane, to plant Citizens Church in Westerville during the Covid 19 pandemic. Citizens Church is currently a thriving church with a congregation of 125 plus.

In January 2024, Summit also launched New Creation Church, a Nepali mission, which meets at Summit on Sunday afternoons. New Creation Church is reaching out to the large Nepali population that has settled in the Pataskala area. Abraham Diyali is the pastor.

Blessed are Those Who Mourn

By Jason Williams, planter, and pastor, The Church in the Wild, Westerville

Luke 22:39-44 “...And being in agony, He prayed more earnestly. Then His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.”

Recently, I have been studying mountains in the Bible and have run across the theme that God loves to meet humanity on a mountain and bring victory and blessing with Him when He arrives. Time after time, we see this happening in Scripture, but in this passage, Jesus is on a mountain, and He is mourning! It does not seem very victorious, right? What is so interesting about this is that this is not the first time this has happened with Jesus.

Luke 19:41-44 “Now as He drew near, He saw the city and wept over it...”

Luke 19 tells us how Jesus enters Jerusalem, having just descended from the Mount of Olives, crosses a narrow valley, and ascends into Jerusalem. As He does, He begins to weep for His people. What struck me is that both times Jesus mourns on a mountain, He is mourning the sins of His people. In Luke 19, He mourns the sin of Israel, and in Luke 22, He mourns humanity’s sin. Jesus discussed mourning over sin in His Sermon on The Mount, found in Matthew.

Matthew 5:4 says, “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.”

Most Bible scholars today believe that Jesus was referencing mourning over sin (both our sin and the sin of our culture). If we look at the Scripture, there are other examples of people who mourned on mountains, but when they specifically mourned the sins of their people, two key figures come to mind.

Exodus 32:30-34:19 “Moses said to the people, ‘You have committed a great sin. So now I will go up to the Lord; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.’ Then Moses returned to the Lord and said, ‘Oh, these people have committed a great sin and have made for themselves a god of gold! Yet now, if You will forgive their sin—but if not, I pray, blot me out of Your book which You have written.’”

In Exodus 32-34, Moses mourns the sin of His people, repents to God, pleads with God to remain with them, and curiously asks God to reveal His glory to Him.

Another famous Bible story about a leader who did this is in 1 Kings.

1 Kings 19:8-13 Elijah said, “I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts. For the people of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword, and I, even I only, am left, and they seek my life, to take it away.”

Some scholars today believe that Elijah mourns the sin of his people on the same mountain that Moses did, that he too curiously encounters the presence of God, and that the following passage is so profound.

Matthew 17:1-3 “Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John, his brother, led them up on a high mountain by themselves; and He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him.”

How incredible that the two men were recorded mourning the sins of their people and meeting Jesus face to face on a mountain for His transfiguration!

Repentance leads to awareness of the Redeemer.

I want to encourage you to be like Moses, like Elijah, and like Jesus to mourn the sins of our country. Maybe that means fasting, leading your church, ministry, group, or family into a prayer time where we call on God to forgive our land, or finding time alone to pray. I wish I could tell you that if we were to mourn the sins of our nation, America would suddenly repent, proclaim a 30-day fast, and turn back to God! That may happen, and we all certainly wish it would, but perhaps that is not the point of these passages. Perhaps the point of these stories is that when we mourn the sins of our world, we encounter God in a whole new way! And He comforts us in ways that we have never experienced. I wonder if we do not find comfort in this world because we have not mourned our sins, felt the comforting hand of God, and experienced Him and His glory in brand new ways.

The Lord's Hay

By John Heading, director, Ohio Disaster Relief

Ohio DR transported 17 bales weighing close to 15,000 pounds to Canadian, Texas.

In Ohio Disaster Relief (OHDR), as in life, sometimes God meets our needs before we even know we have a need.

When Florida Disaster Relief donated a heavy duty pickup truck to Ohio Disaster Relief in February 2024, we didn't know what God had in mind.

However, in March, after the massive wildfires in the Texas panhandle, a call went out to DR groups across the SBC from the Southern Baptist of Texas Convention for hay. Texas farmers had suffered great loss in the fires. The Smokehouse Creek Fire burned approximately 1.75 million acres of land and farmers lost nearly 75,000 head of cattle.

The first issue was finding hay. OHDR volunteer Randy Sparks, First Baptist Heath, connected OHDR to Danny Anderson, a farmer in eastern Ohio, who was eager to help. He agreed to donate hay; he loaned OHDR his gooseneck trailer and recruited an additional farmer to donate more hay. These bales of hay aren't the ones most people know about--they can weigh over 1,000 pounds each.

Pulling an 8,000 pound gooseneck trailer that's carrying 15,000 pounds of hay takes a truck especially equipped for the task. The donated truck from Florida met every requirement! God met our needs before we knew we had a need. We would not have been able to take the first load of hay to Texas without that truck.

On the first trip to deliver the hay to Canadian, Texas, OHDR veteran volunteers Dale Patterson and Randy Sparks had a safe and problem-free trip.

Veteran Ohio DR volunteer Dale Patterson

However, as they prepared to drive home, they discovered a flat tire.

After trading out the spare tire for the flat tire Patterson and Sparks headed out. Hours later, the truck blew both tires on the rear left. They used the spare tire from the trailer and traveled to a tire shop in Joplin, Missouri, where the shop had the exact two tires they needed. God provided for another need.

The expenses for the first hay deployment totaled nearly $2000. Ohio Disaster Relief received $2000 in donations during the first 14 days of March. God supplied our need.

When God provides, He finishes the job. The need for hay in Texas is immense so farmers in eastern Ohio wanted to donate another 34 bales. OHDR leadership decided to hire a commercial carrier to take the extra-large load.

Ohio DR volunteer Mike Monroe, Urbancrest Baptist Church, connected OHDR with Justin Tall, a member of Urbancrest Baptist Church, Lebanon, and works for Total Quality Logistics (TQL), a large transport company in Cincinnati. TQL quoted $3500 to ship the load to Texas and OHDR hired them for the job.

Later that same day, Tall called and shared that his company wanted to invest in the work of Disaster Relief and would deliver the hay for free. The need was $3500, and once again, God provided.

This deployment is another example of God at work. He provided for the needs before they arrived. God doesn't call us to do things unprepared. He gifts us to serve and provides for the needs through his people in the local church. Praise the Lord, and Thank you, Ohio Baptists!

NAMB Revive Summit to Provide Tools for Revitalization

According to the Annual Church Profile 70% of Ohio churches have plateaued or declined in the past five years.

To help combat this trend, the North American Mission Board (NAMB) is sponsoring the NAMB Revive Summit at Violet Baptist Church, Pickerington, May 21-22, to encourage pastor and leaders and help them learn about how to revitalize their own churches.

Revive Summit is a two-day event that includes in-depth Bible study, prayer, practical instructions to improve Biblical preaching, proven steps to move a church toward following Jesus' plan for the church, and meaningful restorative worship for those in attendance.

Speakers include Colin Pugh, replant specialist; Mike Clifton, NAMB replant senior director; David Quiroa, replant specialist; Jimbo Stewart, NAMB replant team associate director; Dr. Frank Lewis, former pastor, First Baptist Church, Nashville; Dr. Joe Crider, SBTS faculty and worship pastor, FBC Benbrook; and Dr. Richard Blackaby, president, Blackaby Ministries International, and Rick Fisher, vice president, Blackaby Ministries International.

During the main sessions speakers will cover a variety of topics, including "Christ's Presence in the Church," "Worship in Church Revitalization," "Preaching When it is Hard," and "God's Not Done with Your Church." In addition, NAMB Revive Summit will feature multiple breakout sessions.

Registration is open and available at <https://web.cvent.com/event/2c28d3dc-865e-4174-9f69-2a11dee7990e/regProcessStep1>. Registration is $15 and includes lunch on both days and dinner on the first day. If you have any questions about NAMB Revive Summit, contact SCBO Revitalization Consultant Mark Jones at mjones@scbo.org.

Super Summer: A Student Leadership Program Second to None!

By Keith Hurt, SCBO director of Next Gen and Super Summer director

Super Summer, a program for student leaders who have finished grades 7-12, is back for 2024 at Cedarville University, June 25-29, Tuesday – Saturday, after a record-breaking year in 2023.

Super Summer raises leaders for the Next Generation

When I first attended Super Summer in 2007 I knew that I was involved in something special. Many denominations struggle to raise leaders, but the SCBO has developed an intentional program to do just that!

Super Summer invites youth pastors across Ohio to identify their student leaders. These students have completed grades 7-12, are serious about their faith, and long to make an impact for Christ. They come to Cedarville University for a week in June where some of the best pastors and youth leaders in the state converge to train them at each grade level.

To participate in Super Summer, students must meet the leadership requirements established by their churches. At my church, Violet Baptist Church, Pickerington, our Super Summer students must serve at church, have a godly testimony, and meet youth group attendance requirements. They must also complete an application, an interview, and an assignment to be eligible to attend Super Summer.

Our Super Summer students would tell you that it is worth the work that it takes to attend the program. Last year 450 adults and students engaged in heartfelt worship and highly focused student leadership training at Super Summer.

Through the years, we have had students from our church who have surrendered to the call to full-time ministry at Super Summer. Others have received training to make an impact for Christ in part-time or volunteer leadership roles in local churches and ministries.

Super Summer registration is now open at super-summerohio.com. The registration deadline is May 2 with a deposit of $145 of the $280 total.

Please pray for these students who are stepping forward to grow as followers of Jesus and as leaders of others. Also, feel free to reach out if you have any questions about Super Summer at khurt@scbo.org.

SCBO Vision Tour Coming to Each Region in 2024

By Stephanie Heading, managing editor

In 2024, the SCBO is coming to a location near you!

The SCBO Vision Tour with Executive Director Jeremy Westbrook is making stops in all six regions of Ohio this year giving pastors, church staff, and church leaders the opportunity to enjoy a meal together, engage in conversation, ask questions, and connect over the heart of ministry in our churches.

"I believe God is at work in our state and I want to celebrate what he's been doing over the past couple of years. I also want to cast vision, not only for this year, but Lord willing, for the years ahead," said Westbrook.

The Vision Tour begins in the Southwest Region in April then moves to the West Region in May and the Southeast Region in June. It resumes in August in the Northeast Region before concluding in September in the Northwest Region and the Central Region.

Westbrook wants to meet face to face with Ohio pastors, leaders, and churches not only to celebrate and cast vision, but also to seek ways to work together for the kingdom.

"I want to collaborate," said Westbrook. "I want you to be able to ask your questions and I want to hear your heart as you hear mine."

Westbrook is excited about spending time with Ohio pastors and leaders during The SCBO Vision Tour.

"I look forward to this. Bring your leaders, your church, whoever wants to come, as we sit down and we celebrate, cast vision, and collaborate together."

Registration for The SCBO Vision Tour is now available at <https://www.scbo.org/event/scbo-vision-tour>.

Refugee Wants World to ‘Hear How I Found Jesus’

By Kristen Sosbee, IMB Writer

Manith Sanchez

Manith Sanchez, a Cambodian refugee who fled Pol Pot’s brutal dictatorship in the late 1970s, had never heard the name of Jesus. But as she recalled her escape, the evidence of God’s provision for her was unmistakable.

“I was almost killed so many times,” Sanchez said. “Anything could have happened to me, but for some reason God prepared my way.”

Sanchez grew up on a farm in the foothills of the Cambodian mountains. In her memory, it was an idyllic childhood. She loved the rhythms of farming and going to school in the small village where she knew everyone. She loved watching the sun rise with her grandmother over a cup of warm, jasmine tea, and calling out morning greetings to neighbors from the wraparound balcony of their home.

Manith’s family, led by her wise and revered grandmother, strictly adhered to the Buddhist traditions of their culture. But Manith harbored a deep resistance to the religion of Cambodia.

“For some reason, I was always against Buddhist traditions,” Sanchez said. “I was like the oddball out of my whole family. They practiced Buddhism all the time, but not me.”

Manith reflected that God directed her heart, even then. “He already had plans for me,” she said. “I did not know Him before, but He knew me.”

Her grandmother believed education was important, and Manith was an excellent student. They made plans for her to study abroad after high school.

What they could not have known was that soon Manith would be forced to leave her beloved Cambodia not as an exchange student but a refugee. She would never return.

In 1975 the Communist state took over the Cambodian government, and rumors of widespread killings escalated throughout the country.

“My name was on the list of the capture to kill because I was educated,” Sanchez shared. “And I married a man that worked for the government, so we were both on the list.”

In 1976, the city where Manith lived was bombed. As the city descended into chaos and terror, she fled with her family. It became a yearslong journey to safety. In her book “The List,” Sanchez wrote in detail about the horrors she experienced—the killing fields, mass executions, labor camps and the death of her firstborn child—until she at last reached the barbed-wire border of Thailand and leapt to safety through a barrage of bullets with her two children strapped to her body.

It was in the Khao I Dang refugee camp in Thailand that Manith heard the name of Jesus for the first time.

“Paul and Wendy are the first people that introduced me to Christ,” Sanchez said. Paul and Wendy were missionaries from the United States.

Manith first saw Paul standing under a shady tree with a thick black book talking about a man named Jesus. It wasn’t long before she went every Sunday to sit under the tree and hear more about God. Paul and Wendy gave Manith a Bible in her own language.

Manith Sanchez is an active member of First Baptist Church of Middleburg, in Middleburg, Florida. She serves her church as part of the Audio Video Lighting production team. Photo Provided

One Sunday, she asked them if they could help her.

“I want to meet Jesus in person,” she said.

As many refugees made plans to resettle in another country, Manith wondered if she could resettle in heaven. When she asked Paul, she was surprised that he laughed and asked her why.

“Of course, when you believe in Jesus you want to go to heaven,” Sanchez reasoned. “You want to see Him.”

Paul and Wendy encouraged her to study her Bible and disciplined Manith along with other new believers among the refugees. Soon, she was baptized in a river that ran through the camp.

In her book, Sanchez wrote about the impact of Paul and Wendy’s ministry to her and other refugees. “With almost zero knowledge of the Cambodian, Laos, or Thai languages, they believed God could use them to introduce Jesus to refugees from those countries.”

Like IMB missionaries serving around the world today, Paul and Wendy crossed geographic, cultural, and linguistic barriers to make His name known.

Sanchez said the miracle of their ministry was faith in God’s Word as they put the Bible into the hands of refugees, knowing it would not return void.

Though Paul and Wendy have both passed away, the word of God remains in the hearts of those they reached, like Manith. They gave their lives for the mission of taking the gospel to every nation, all tribes, peoples and languages, and their legacy continues to bear fruit today.

“Truly deep down in my heart since the day I knew Jesus, I’ve wanted so much for everyone in the world to get to know Him,” Sanchez said. “I want to share with the world how I found Jesus; yet, I did not find Him, but He found me.”

Manith Sanchez volunteers at a food distribution in the community. It provided boxed Thanksgiving meals. Photo Provided

Lunch and Learn with Kie Bowman Set for April 22

Are you looking for ways to elevate prayer ministry in your church for gospel multiplication?

Join other Ohio pastors and prayer leaders with the same desire at a Lunch and Learn with Kie Bowman, SBC national prayer director, at First Southern Baptist Church, Camden, on Monday, April 22 from 11 am to 1 pm.

For the last 40-plus years, Kie Bowman has been passionate about prayer, revival, evangelism, the Spirit-filled Christian life, and teaching/preaching the Word of God! Having recently retired as the senior pastor of Hyde Park Baptist Church in Austin, Texas, his ministry continues in various venues and platforms.

Bowman is teaching, encouraging, and leading pastors and churches nationwide to prioritize prayer in their churches. God has used him to lead a city-wide revival of prayer in Austin. Pastors and leaders, come and be encouraged as we hear stories of the power of prayer!

“John the Baptist said of Jesus, ‘He must increase, I must decrease.’ (John 3:30). But how? The key is prayer,” said Steve Hopkins, SCBO senior staff. “My prayer life can help me evaluate how well I allow Him to increase. My prayers will give evidence of my focus. The church’s prayers will reflect our hearts for our neighbors and the nations.”

Registration for Lunch and Learn with Kie Bowman is now open at Judy@fsbcamden.org or 937-452-7291 and includes lunch and a book. Registration is required

Kie Bowman, SBC national prayer director for lunch. The registration deadline is April 18. First Southern Baptist Church Camden is located at 35 N. Liberty St. Camden, OH 45311.
