Bart McDonald serves as executive director of the Southern Baptists of Texas Foundation. He holds a Masters of Divinity with biblical languages from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and a BBA in finance from Texas A&M University. Prior to a calling to ministry, he had a successful career in banking, finance and consulting. Bart served as senior pastor at Tate Springs Baptist Church in Arlington.

Terry Jeffries has served churches in Missouri and Texas over the past 35 years in the areas of education and administration. Most recently he served as the executive pastor of Tate Springs Baptist Church in Arlington, Texas. Terry also has significant business experience, having served as the president of two corporations for more than 25 years.

Barry Ford serves as the minister to young married adults and men’s outreach at First Baptist Dallas. Barry is passionate about family and marriage ministry and about creating creative and contagious environments to connect adults to the local church. He and his wife, Ellen, have been married for 19 years and are the proud parents of 13-year-old twins, Jake and Emma.

Benjamin Wright grew up in a believing family and made a profession of faith as a young child, but really only understood the gospel and trusted Christ much later. He spent the next 14 years working in Christian educational organizations, studying at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, and training in a pastoral apprenticeship. In 2009 he joined the staff of High Pointe Baptist Church in Austin as an associate pastor. After several years there, High Pointe commissioned him to pastor its Cedar Park church plant. Ben and his wife, Meredith, have four sons and one daughter.

Dante Wright has pastored Sweet Home Baptist Church, “The Pinnacle of Praise,” in Round Rock since 2005. During his tenure, he has seen that church grow from 60 members to around 2,000. He is a former collegiate football player and coach, and remains an avid sports fan. But serving his church is his passion. A native of Dallas, Dr. Wright holds degrees from Southeast Missouri State, Criswell College, Liberty University and Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is additionally completing a Ph.D dissertation with Midwestern. He has also taught at several colleges and universities. Dante and his wife, Tracy, have five children.
