Dr. Jeremy Westbrook serves as the new Executive Director-Treasurer of the State Convention of Baptists in Ohio. Before coming back to Ohio, Jeremy served as the Senior Associate Pastor of Calvary Church in Clearwater, FL and also as the Lead Missional Strategist of the Suncoast Baptist Association. Originally, Dr. Westbrook came to Ohio in 2008 to plant Living Hope Church in Marysville.

Dr. Jamison (Jamie) L. Work served as a pastor for more than 36 years in six churches across three states. While serving as a local pastor, Dr. Work sponsored three successful church plants, started two Christian schools, and initiated a Church Planting and Theological Training Institute. He and his wife also served with the IMB for three years in the Middle East and serves at the IMB's home office in Richmond, Va.

Joshua Wright leads CABA's Mudout Unit. He works full time in commercial construction and is also an active member of University Baptist in Middletown. His first experience with DR was in December 2012 when SuperStorm Sandy hit the East Coast. Josh went with CABA's Mudout Team. He has answered many mudout callouts since then and in 2019 took over the role of mudout training for Ohio Baptists.

CONFERENCE LEADERS

Jean DiFilippo currently serves as President of Ohio WMU/Women's Missions & Ministry, and has served alongside her husband, Jim, in ministry for thirty-five years. She also works with a campus ministry at Ohio University.

Dr. Duane Floro is the Resource Group Leader for the Missions Support and Mobilization Resource Group, SCBO. He has pastored churches in Kentucky, West Virginia, Indiana, Arizona, and Oklahoma. He is a graduate of Cumberland College, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and his Dmin is from Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary.

Dean Fulks is NAMB's Regional Director for church planting in the Ohio Valley Region. In 2003, he planted Lifepoint Church in Lewis Center, now with three campuses and over 4,000 attending. He has authored and co-authored several books. He is a graduate of The Ohio State University & Mid-America Seminary

John Heading serves as the state coordinator for Ohio Baptist Disaster Relief. He began volunteering more than 20 years ago and became certified through DR training. Today, he oversees crisis response for mudout, chainsaw, chaplains, assessors, and food services. He also casts vision to enlist new volunteers. John works with other relief agencies such as the American Red Cross and FEMA and also facilitates training, sends out teams, and helps in team building.

Jason McKinney serves as pastor in a network of simple churches as well as the church planting coach for the Cincinnati Area Baptist Association. He is also the Strategic Coordinator for e3 in Cincinnati.

Phil Nelson is a stateside mobilizer with the IMB. He has served as a Journeyman and career missionary in Asia. He has also served in a church as a Pastor of Missions. As a mobilizer, he resources, coaches, and encourages pastors and leaders.

Cathy Pound serves the State Convention of Baptists in Ohio as Ohio WMU State Executive Director. Previously, she taught elementary education, learning disabilities, founded Granville Christian Academy in Granville, Ohio, and served with IMB in the Philippines and East Africa.

Travis Smalley, a native of the Cincinnati area, has been the Lead Pastor at Lakota Hills since 2006. He earned his Bachelor's degree from Clear Creek Baptist Bible College and his Master's degree from Liberty University. He also serves as the Send Cincinnati Missionary with the North American Mission Board to start churches in the Cincinnati area.
